MVCTC Teacher Academy Students Assisting Elementary Students

Clayton, Ohio – Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Teacher Academy students are taking the skills they have learned at MVCTC and applying them to tutoring local elementary children every Friday throughout the school year. The MVCTC Teacher Academy is a senior-only program that provides students first-hand experience in being a teacher. The students have many opportunities to engage themselves in the role of a teacher and to participate in off-campus school internships such as tutoring local elementary students.

Assisting local elementary schools as tutors this school year are:

- Stacey Byrne (Brookville) and Meghan Copenhaver (Brookville) at Westbrook Elementary in Brookville
- Rachel Cable (Northmont), Casey Ledford (Northmont), and Amanda Pierron (Wayne) at Englewood Elementary
- Heather Combs (Troy Christian) at Cookston Elementary in Troy
- Ashley Sargent (Bethel) at the Pathways School in Dayton
- Meghan Robbins (Twin Valley South) at Twin Valley South Elementary
- Chelsey Reinhard (Tri-Village) at Tri-Village Elementary

A student in the MVCTC Teacher Academy Program will learn Child Development, Curriculum Development, Multi-Media Presentations, and Teaching Techniques for an in demand career field. After completing this program, students would be able to pursue a career as a Teacher's Aide, Child Care Worker, or Preschool Aide, and with additional training could become a Certified Teacher, Counselor, or even an Administrator. For more information about the Teacher Academy or any of the other exciting 49 career programs offered at MVCTC, please visit www.mvctc.com or www.ctctube.com.
