MVCTC Adult Education Graduates Ready for the Workforce

Clayton, Ohio – Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Adult Education celebrated the graduation of 15 Medical Assisting and 35 Licensed Practical Nursing students on Friday, June 12, 2009. The graduation ceremony, held in the Student Activity Center on the MVCTC campus, was attended by family and friends of the graduates.

Recent graduates from the Medical Assisting program include: Christy Alcorn (Eaton), Carol Bulach (Eaton), Brandie Butterly (Brookville), Melissa Campbell (Dayton), Shirrleen Craft (Clayton), Yvette Finley (Dayton), Valerie Griffin (Dayton), Leah Hamilton (Huber Heights), Jessica Impson-Littler (Huber Heights), Susan Knife (Lewisburg), Gina Price-Adkins (New Carlisle), Aleshia Schrubb (Englewood), Sherry Shelton (Vandalia), Lindsay Shilt (Brookville), and Sandra Townsend (Huber Heights).

The Medical Assisting program is a full-time, 30-week, 900-hour program, which prepares adult students to work in medical offices and clinics. The program includes classes in Anatomy and Physiology, medical terminology, communications, office procedures, medical skills, CPR, and pharmacology. Graduates from the Medical Assisting program had to complete a 192-hour externship and may be eligible to take the certification exam to earn the title Certified Medical Assistant (CMA).

Recent graduates from the Licensed Practical Nursing program include: James Ashcraft (Beavercreek), Joshua Ashcraft (Beavercreek), Joel Bearss (Vandalia), Cynthia Beckett (Huber Heights), Honey Clauer (Huber Heights), Tracy Crum (Germantown), Britney Evans (Waynesville), Adam Fessler (Centerville), Brandy Hackett (Huber Heights), Janna House (Dayton), Tiffany Howard (Dayton), Angelia Jaques (Dayton), Janta Jefferson (Dayton), Tamera Jones (Vandalia), Brenda Korzan (Miamisburg), Terri Lovely (Vandalia), Alendre' McGhee (Trotwood), Sherri McGuire (Dayton), Sandra McIntosh (Carlisle), Dominique Meriner (Trotwood), Melissa Parris (Xenia), Deanna Potts (Tipp City), Jennifer Powell (Lewisburg), Britney Regon (Brookville), Richard Seal (Dayton), Michael Sibley (Dayton), Amber Smith (New Lebanon), Melody Spence (Huber Heights), Samantha Stutz (Dayton), Kari Thomas (New Lebanon), Heather Toschlog (New Paris), Amanda Treadway (Englewood), Heather Wegerzyn (Huber Heights), Tracy Williams (Dayton), Jennifer Wynn (Xenia).

The Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) program at MVCTC is approved by the Ohio Board of Nursing and is either completed as full-time classes, 41-weeks over 11-months, or taken as part-time classes, over 22-months. This program prepares students for professional licensure and employment as a Licensed Practical Nurse. Following successful completion of the MVCTC LPN courses, students are eligible to sit for the National Certification and Licensing Exam (NCLEX-PN).

MVCTC is committed to helping citizens of the Miami Valley find success in the job market, even a job market in turmoil. Current construction projects will allow for the expansion of MVCTC Adult Education programs, especially in the health care field. Classes are forming now for the fall of 2009 in the new Adult Education facility, visit www.mvctc.com for more information.

MVCTC will be holding an Open House for their Adult Education programs on Tuesday, July 7, 10 a.m. – noon, and Thursday, July 9, 7-9 p.m. Miami Valley residents interested in making a career change are invited to attend the open house and learn more about programs in health occupations, construction trades, public safety, and industrial trades.
