MVCTC Schedules Early College Connection Night

Clayton, Ohio – The Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) has scheduled an Early College Connection Night for the parents of current high school sophomores. The college night will take place on Thursday, October 22, from 6:30-7:30p.m. in the Student Activity Center. The MVCTC campus is located at 6800 Hoke Road, Clayton, Ohio.

Parents will learn about programs at MVCTC that will help students get a head start on their college education. This includes Tech Prep, Dual Enrollment, Apprenticeship, and other avenues to post secondary education. Representatives from MVCTC college partners will be present to speak with students, parents and answer questions. Early College Connection partners include Sinclair Community College, Miami University Middletown, Wright State University, Indiana University East, University of Dayton, Edison Community College, Hocking Tech, and The Ohio State University/ATI. The opportunities available at MVCTC allow students to graduate with thousands of dollars toward their college education. Parents if you have a child who is currently a sophomore do not miss this opportunity!

MVCTC serves 27 school districts in the Miami Valley and is dedicated to providing premier educational choices and advanced employment preparation for youth, adults, and organizations of the Miami Valley. To RSVP for this event, please call 937-854-8056. For more information about MVCTC, please visit www.mvctc.com.
