MVCTC BPA Students Sponsor Breast Cancer Awareness Events

Clayton, Ohio – Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Business Professionals of America (BPA) students declared October 19-23, Breast Cancer Awareness Week on the MVCTC campus. BPA Officers, Jessica Webb (Legal Assistant student from Eaton), Zach Dozier (Financial Management student from Wayne), Brooke Bussard (Marketing and Media student from Valley View), Amanda Burgher (Medical Office Management student from Northmont), Sam Sussman (Computer Information Technology student from Northmont), and Marjorie Brickey (Legal Assistant student from Vandalia) promoted breast cancer awareness to the students and staff.

The BPA officers passed out literature on breast cancer awareness, shared a video, created a PowerPoint, and shared facts about breast cancer. On Thursday, of the week, all students and staff wore pink ribbons and on Friday, the all wore pink shirts to help promote breast cancer awareness. The BPA Officers also arranged a fundraiser with the Bob Evans restaurant on Miller Lane in Vandalia. On October 19 and 20, 15 percent of all sales was donated to “Time for a Cure” from the MVCTC BPA Chapter.

The BPA Officers are under the guidance of advisors Mandy Watts and Carrie Wiant. Marjorie Brickey, MVCTC BPA Chapter Reporter, said of the week, “I think that the students and the staff really helped out a lot throughout the week by supporting the different events and hopefully our donation from the Bob Evans fundraiser will help people throughout the world with breast cancer.”

MVCTC offers rigorous academic preparation and hands-on career technical training for high school junior and senior students in the Miami Valley.
