MVCTC Observes Veterans Day

Clayton, Ohio – The Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) held its annual observance of Veterans Day Wednesday, November 11. Staff and students across the school contributed to a meaningful and moving day. Among the activities were:

- Seniors, Dustin Jones (Tri-Village) and Joe McGraw (Tipp City), from Mr. Pat Carlisle's Interactive Multi-Media Development Tech Prep class created the video and PowerPoint products that you can see at <http://ctctube.com>
- A reveille performed by the Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps
- Posters honoring veterans on the MVCTC staff
- Messages regarding Veterans Day sent by e-mail and on the video sign board
- Senior Brittany Washington (Wayne) shared a poem wrote with the school that she wrote about Veterans Day
- Global Issues teacher Robin Speer, worked with her students to research, create, and distribute red paper poppies for staff in honor of Veterans Day

Humanities Supervisor, Mrs. Lona Bowman, organizes all events scheduled at MVCTC on Veterans Day. Mrs. Bowman does a wonderful job of honoring our veterans and getting the entire school involved in observing Veterans Day.

MVCTC offers rigorous academic preparation and hands-on career technical training for high school junior and senior students in the Miami Valley. For more information about career technical programs offered at MVCTC, please visit www.mvctc.com or plan on visiting the Sophomore Open House scheduled for Thursday, December 10, 4:30-7 p.m. The Open House will give high school sophomores and their parents a chance to meet career technical instructors, visit the 50-plus career programs offered at MVCTC, learn more about MVCTC early college connections, and tour the campus. Please call 937-837-7781 for more information.
