Local Hospitality Services FCCLA Winners Announced

Clayton, Ohio – Hospitality Services students at Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) were recently announced as winners in the Local Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) Contests. Winners of these local contests will compete at the Region 5 FCCLA Contest against students from Greene County Career Center, Upper Valley Joint Vocational School (JVS), and Greenville City Schools. The Region 5 Contest will take place on March 6, 2010 at Upper Valley JVS. Winners at the Regional Contest will then advance to the State FCCLA Competition this coming April.

The MVCTC Local Hospitality Services winners included:

- Josh Holt (Troy Christian) and Stephanie Smith (New Lebanon) won the local Hotel Linen Operations contest.
- Da'Meko Saddler (Northmont) won the Guestroom Attendant contest
- Matthew West (Brookville) and Rashawn Lackings (Northmont) won the Meeting Event Set-Up contest
- Crystal Ritchie (Eaton) and Lois Gross (National Trail) won the Creative Banquet Table Design contest
- Sherry Balsler (Milton Union) and Courtney Corcoran (Versailles) won the Lodging Career Investigation contest

MVCTC is very proud of our students and congratulates them on their great accomplishments.

February is Career and Technical Education (CTE) month, and MVCTC is the CTE center for 27-area high schools spanning Darke, Miami, Montgomery, Preble, and Carlisle schools in Warren County. MVCTC in partnership with these local communities provides challenging and relevant educational choices and advanced employment preparation for youth, adults, and organizations of the Miami Valley. MVCTC offers 50 career programs and an advanced academic foundation for high school juniors and seniors, as well as early college connections with several local universities.
