MVCTC 2010 Prom Court Announced

Clayton, Ohio -- The 2010 MVCTC Prom “A Night on the Town”, was held in the Student Activity Center on Saturday, April 10, 2010. With over 800 students in attendance, the evening was a huge success. This year’s Prom King and Queen were announced near the end of the evening, with seniors Terence Chambers (Computer Information Technology Tech Prep student from Northmont) and Phylicia Wymer (Allied Health Medical Careers student from Tri-County North) selected as the reigning prom royalty for 2010.

The 2010 Prom Court was made up of a female and male representative from the MVCTC Career Technical Student Organizations (CTSO’s). This included the following students:

- Liz Adams for SkillsUSA. Liz is a Digital Design Technology Tech Prep student from Bethel.
- Jerrica Barge for FCCLA. Jerrica is an Early Childhood Education student from Versailles.
- Amy Chappie for SkillsUSA. Amy is an Architectural Engineering student from Miami East.
- Lauren Griesmeyer for SkillsUSA. Lauren is a Cosmetology student from Tipp City.
- Abbey Reed for FFA. Abbey is a senior in the Environmental and Natural Resources Tech Prep program from Miamisburg.
- Lacy Stamper for BPA. Lacy is a Legal Assistant student from Huber Heights.
- Phylicia Wymer for HOSA. Phylicia is an Allied Health Medical Careers student from Tri-County North.

- Kevin Capriotti for SkillsUSA. Kevin is an Automotive Technology student from Miamisburg.
- Terence Chambers for BPA. Computer Information Technology Tech Prep student from Northmont
- Matthew Green for SkillsUSA. Matthew is a Welding student from Tri-County North.
- Travis McCool for FFA. Travis is an Agri-Technology student from Bethel.
- Bryce Renicker for HOSA. Bryce is a Sports Medicine Tech Prep student from Bethel.
