MVCTC Academic Challenge Team Wraps Up Year

Clayton, Ohio -- The Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Academic Challenge Team concluded its season with a team breakfast April 29. Over the course of the school year, they competed at WHIO's High Q, the Ohio News Network Brain Game, the Tipp City tournament, the Wright State University Tournament, the Northmont Tournament, and in the Miami Valley Academic Challenge League. Mr. Dave Gilmore and Ms. Robin Speer served as coaches. The teams representing many high schools are developed from middle school through high school.

The following students enthusiastically came together as juniors and seniors to compete for MVCTC: Thomas Adamson (a junior from Miamisburg in Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps), Emily Berger (a senior from Ansonia in Graphic Commercial Art), Ashlee Brown (a senior from Wayne in Clerical Services), Andrew Eagan (a senior from Tipp City in Computer Information Technology), Olivia Frederick (a senior from Bethel in Allied Health Technologies Tech Prep), Dustin Glenn (a senior from Twin Valley South in Clerical Services), Travis Hesson (a senior from Miamisburg in Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps), Bev Himes (a junior from Mississinawa Valley in Cosmetology), Leah Hogue (a senior from Vandalia-Butler in Biotechnology Tech Prep), Taja McCown (a senior from Twin Valley South in Allied Health Technologies Tech Prep), Rich Neil, Jr. (a senior from Arcanum in Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps), Crystal Platfoot (a senior from Bethel in Allied Health Technologies Tech Prep), and Ryan Woodruff (a senior from Mississinawa Valley in Criminal Justice).

Named to the Miami Valley Academic Challenge Team Second Team All Conference, was Leah Hogue (Vandalia-Butler) and Thomas Adamson

(Miamisburg) received Miami Valley Academic Challenge All Conference Honorable Mention.
