MVCTC Observes Veterans Day

Clayton, Ohio – The Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) held its annual observance of Veterans Day starting on Monday, November 7, 2011. Staff and students across the school contributed to a meaningful and moving day.

Among the activities were:

- A reveille performed by the Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps
- Posters honoring veterans on the MVCTC staff
- Messages regarding Veterans Day sent by e-mail and on the video sign board
- Global Issues teacher Robin Speer, worked with her students to research, create, and distribute red paper poppies for staff in honor of Veterans Day
- A special video created by MVCTC Social Studies teacher and veteran, Mr. Eric Dolan, that included interviews with veterans at Brookhaven Nursing Home.

Academics Supervisor, Dr. Nick Weldy, with the help of Mr. Dolan organized all events scheduled at MVCTC on Veterans Day. Dr. Weldy and Mr. Dolan do a wonderful job of honoring our veterans and getting the entire school involved in observing Veterans Day.

MVCTC offers rigorous academic preparation and hands-on career technical training for high school junior and senior students in the Miami Valley. For more information about career technical programs offered at MVCTC, please visit www.mvctc.com or plan on visiting the Sophomore Open House scheduled for Thursday, December 8, 4:30-7 p.m. The Open House will give high school sophomores and their parents a chance to meet career technical instructors, visit the 50-plus career programs offered at MVCTC, learn more about MVCTC early college connections, and tour the campus. Please call 937-837-7781 for more information.
