MVCTC 2012 Prom Court Announced

Clayton, Ohio -- The 2012 MVCTC Prom “A Moment in Time”, was held in the Student Activity Center on Saturday, April 21, 2012. With over 800 students in attendance, the evening was a huge success. This year’s Prom King and Queen were announced near the end of the evening, with seniors Sam Judd (Sports Medicine senior from Tri-County North) and Samantha Reed (Medical Careers senior from Carlisle) selected as the reigning prom royalty for 2012.

The 2012 Prom Court was made up of a female and male representative from the MVCTC Career Technical Student Organizations (CTSO’s). This included the following students:

- Samantha Reed and Sam Judd represented the HOSA
- Jasmine Grillmeier (Marketing and Media student from Franklin Monroe) and Cody Brand (Marketing and Media student from Northmont) represented the BPA
- Brooke Combs (Veterinary Science student from Miami East) and Cory Klosterman (Environmental Science student from Milton Union) represented the FFA
- Julie Duren (Culinary Arts student from Vandalia Butler) represented FCCLA
- Mary Kate Moore (Dental Assistant student from Twin Valley South) represented SkillsUSA section 1
- Erin Johnson (Electronics Engineering student from Twin Valley South) represented SkillsUSA section 2
- Sarina Caudy-Marquez (Criminal Justice student from Wayne) and Jacob Miller (Air Force ROTC student from Miami East) represented SkillsUSA section 3
