MVCTC Allied Health Senior Awarded

Dayton, Ohio -- Way to go Allied Health senior Taylor Stringfield (Dayton)! She was recently nominated for and received the "Volunteer Excellence" award from the Miami Valley Hospital. Taylor volunteers her time at the hospital helping transport patients. Her award states, "Taylor is such a team player. She is always smiling and speaking with patients, visitors, and staff. She is very in tune with patients' needs, noticing when they need assistance and happily helping them with even the smallest of tasks, like reaching for their glasses. Taylor fulfills all requests with a smile and without hesitation. She is cheerful, compassionate and determined. She is part of the team and we are very thankful for her help. Taylor is a wonderful asset to our Volunteer Program."

For over 40-years, MVCTC has been providing career technical education for 27 partner school districts encompassing five counties in Southwest Ohio. MVCTC is dedicated to providing in-demand workforce training for youth, adults, and organizations in the Miami Valley.
